UNDER THE BANNER OF HEAVEN: A STORY OF VIOLENT FAITH. Jon Krakauer. 2003. Read by the author. Abridged. 5 cds. 6 hrs. Random House Audio. 0-7393-0656-1. $29.95. Plastic; content, author notes. SA

This abridged version of the story of the Mormon religion—also known as Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints (LDS)—traces its origins and the various sects that have evolved from it, specifically the fundamentalist sects of the LDS. Krakauer begins with the brutal murders of Brenda Lafferty and her 15-month-old baby Erika by Brenda's brothers-in-law, which grabs the listener's attention immediately. A short but interesting author's note ends the audio.

Krakauer reads the account dispassionately, never allowing his own opinions to intrude on the narrative. The abridged version flows smoothly and continuously with no sense that anything has been omitted. The portions that have been left out are long histories of each major player in the relatively short history of the LDS, which will interest only those with a deep curiosity about the subject. Students and teachers will find this useful in any discussion or study of fundamentalism and what drives and motivates its adherents. Sue Rosenzweig, Consultant, Lincoln, RI

AN UNFINISHED LIFE: JOHN F. KENNEDY, 1917-1963. Robert Dallek. 2003. Read by Richard McGonagle. Abridged. 6 tapes. 9 hrs. Time Warner Audio. 1-58621-543-4. $32.98. Cardboard, plastic; content notes. SA

Robert Dallek's biography reveals intimate and fascinating details of both the political and personal life of the 35th President, John F. Kennedy, slain by an assassin's bullet at the age of 46. From a young age, Kennedy was sickly yet determined not to lag behind his older brother, who was the apple of their father's eye and being groomed to one day become president of the United States. JFK was administered the last rites several times, and his hold on life was tenuous at best, which left him with the resolve to live his life to the fullest, even if that meant hurting others. Politically curious at an early age, Kennedy also acquired much through his travels throughout the world and through his familial connections.

Narrated by McGonagle, this illuminating volume casts new light on details of Kennedy's life in an unbiased manner with remarkably accurate accents used throughout. Sunnie Grant, Bus. Mgr., Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur, Ipswich, MA
